Darlington is located in County Durham, approximately 33 miles South of Newcastle and 60 miles North of Leeds and is one of the principle commercial and regional centres in the North East.

Location

The immediate area benefits from excellent links to the regional and national motorway network with Darlington being 3 miles East of Junction 57 of the A1(M) motorway providing easy access to Newcastle and the North as well as Leeds / M62 and M1 to the South.

Darlington Train Station provides frequent services to London (fastest journey time of 2 hours 20 minutes) and Edinburgh (fastest journey time of 2 hours) via the East Coast line. The area is further served by Durham Tees Valley International Airport, 3.5 miles to the South East providing both UK and European passenger and freight services.

Situation

The offices are situated approximately 2.5 miles East of Darlington Town Centre just off the B6280 Yarm Road in Morton Road close to its junction with Lingfield Way. B&Q and Morrisons Supermarket are close by. The property forms part of the 145 acre Yarm Road Business Park with surrounding operators include Darlington Building Society, EE, Northgate PLC. Darlington Retail Park is also close by, which along with Travelodge and Toby Carvery Family Pub, completes a wider retail offer and amenity for immediate office occupiers and businesses.
